

M&G's Catalyst appoints Rana Modarres as Impact Director

London, 17 May 2022 – M&G Investments announces the appointment of Rana Modarres as Impact Director within the firm's Catalyst team.

Rana joins Catalyst from Oxfam GB where she was Director of Investing and Social Impact, with almost a decade's experience in social and impact investing. Rana will lead the ongoing development of the team's Impact Strategy and work with the investment teams and portfolio companies to ensure that Impact is delivered in line with the fund objectives and, measured and reported in line with the highest market standards.

M&G's Catalyst strategy, led by Alex Seddon, is investing up to £5 billion into innovative privately-owned global businesses working to create a more sustainable world. The strategy has three core focuses – climate, healthcare and inclusion.

Alex Seddon, Head of M&G's Catalyst Team, says: "We are very pleased to welcome Rana who brings extensive knowledge and expertise in social and impact investing. Rana's appointment is testament to our continued investment in and strengthening of our in-house capabilities within sustainable and impact investing."
